

Here in Orem, nothing is more important than family. In multiple surveys, citizens have made it clear that they want quality things to do with their families in the city. That's why we have invested so much in recreational and cultural opportunities that the entire family can enjoy together. The last five years have brought a flurry of improvements, as well as national recognition, but we aren't done making Orem's recreational and cultural amenities better. Stay tuned for exciting announcements coming soon!
